

President of Corporate Relations

About Company:

A diversified corporate house with interests in textiles, real estate, energy, and petrochemicals seeks a senior leader to strengthen its government and industry interface.

Role Purpose:

The President Corporate Relations will be responsible for liaising with ministries, regulatory authorities, and senior policymakers to safeguard and promote the Group's business interests across sectors.

Key Deliverables:

- Represent the Group at the highest levels of government and industry.
- Build and maintain trusted relationships with ministries, regulators, and associations.
- Monitor policy and regulatory developments; advise the Group leadership.
- Organize strategic meetings with policymakers and industry stakeholders.
- Act as the group's ambassador in industry forums and policy platforms.

Candidate Profile:

- 20+ years of senior experience in corporate affairs, public policy, or government relations.
- Proven track record of effective engagement with ministries and senior stakeholders.
- Well-established network at the highest levels of government and industry.
- Strong strategic, communication, and negotiation capabilities.
- Crisp / Network-Share Version (for head-hunters & outreach)

Profile Sought:

- 20+ years in corporate/government relations.
- Deep networks with ministries, regulators & associations.
- Proven ability to organize meetings and represent at senior forums